WHOSE DUTY?

THE PROSECUTION FOR PETTY CRIMES IN DISPUTE.

The Matter Brought to a Climax Yesterday in Judge Stanton's Court—Written Demands Served on the District and City Attorneys.

The differences between the District and City Attorneys in regard to the work of the Police Court, as outlined in THE TIMES a few days ago, reached a culminating point yesterday. As stated, the trouble is in regard to the prosecution of cases in which the city gets the benefit in the way of fines, etc., the District Attorney claiming that the city should furnish a man for this work. The City Attorney, on the other hand, says that, according to the code, the organic law, it is specifically stated that it is the duty of the District Attorney to prosecute all offenders against the State laws. The District Attorney, it seems, agrees to prosecute all felony cases, but draws the line at misdemeanors, and says that if any one wants a complaint for a misdemeanor, and will come to his office, he will sue it, but will assign the case for trial to the Township Justice's Court. This state of affairs has existed now for the past two weeks, and has been the cause of considerable inconvenience, as neither of the officials have shown any particular disposition to come to an agreement, and would doubtless have continued indefinitely but for test case being made yesterday, which will probably bring the matter to a focus.

Yesterday afternoon Chief of Police Burns appeared before Justice Stanton with three men, Bill Williams, a Chinaman named Ah Wing and Charles Peterson, all charged with petty larceny. The arresting officers were also on hand, but no complaint had been preferred. Justice Stanton has been making out the complaints in his court, but he did not think that it was the province of the court to act as prosecutor, he drew the line, and quit, and there was an awkward pause. The Chief stated his case, saying that the men had been arrested by members of the police force, who were present in court as witnesses, and they were ready for trial. Deputy City Attorney Crutcher was in court, and said the Chief of Police and Justice Stanton demanded that he prefer the complaints. Mr. Crutcher refused to do so, on the ground that it was only his duty to prosecute cases of violation of the city ordinances. As there was no Deputy District Attorney present, the Justice remanded the men to the custody of the Chief of Police, and they were again locked up. Justice Stanton then addressed the following letter to the City Attorney:

LOS ANGELES (Cal.), May 23, 1889.

To Charles McFarland, City Attorney for the City of Los Angeles, State of California: Sirs: You are hereby notified that there are at present in the persons confined in the City Prison of this city under a charge of petty larceny. That said persons were this afternoon brought before the Justice of the Peace Court, for arraignment on the charge. That no complaints were prepared and consequently said prisoners were remanded to the care of the Chief of Police of said city until complaints were properly prepared and presented. That while said prisoners were in court at arraignment demand was made by J. F. Burns, Chief of Police of said city, and by the undersigned, as Justice of the Peace Court, of Albert Crutcher, Deputy City Attorney, in open court, that he prepare for verification and filing the necessary complaints against the said prisoners, charging them with the crime of petty larceny, the arresting officers being present in court to verify the same, which he positively and to the knowledge of the court, did not do. The following was also sent to the District Attorney:

LOS ANGELES, May 23, 1889.
To F. P. Kelly, District Attorney of Los Angeles county, California.—Sir: There are three prisoners now confined in the City Jail of Los Angeles awaiting trial on a charge of petty larceny. No complaints have been made or filed in this court against said defendants, and said defendants demand a trial on said charge. You are hereby requested to prepare, or have prepared, the necessary complaints against said defendants, and to file the same with the clerk of said court without delay for verification, and you are further requested to appear in person or by deputy and prosecute said cases to a final determination in said Police Court.

Respectfully, L. STANTON,
Judge of the Police Court of the said City of Los Angeles.

Up to 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon neither of these gentlemen had officially responded to Justice Stanton's notice, although one of the prisoners, Peterson, was taken before Justice Lockwood and committed to the County Jail, the parties prosecuting him having gone to the District Attorney's office and there got a complaint. The other two men are in the City Prison, and unless some arrangement is arrived at will be released this morning, as the City of Police has no authority to hold them more than 24 hours without a trial.

The practical effect of the present complication is to make it useless for the police to arrest any one except on a charge of discharging or violating the city ordinances, and that in cases where they are not covered by the statutes, and it is probable that an effort will be made to institute mandamus proceedings against one or both of the officials at fault to define the local status of the affair. The general opinion among lawyers is that, as a matter of equity, the city getting all the fines, etc., the City Attorney should do the work, but that, as an abstract question of law, under the code, it is clearly the duty of the District Attorney to attend to prosecutions in the Police Court, the same as in other courts, when the offense is covered by the statutes.

Trifling With the Law.
The trifling nature of some of the cases that get up to the Superior Court is astonishing. Yesterday Joe Claverie was tried before Judge McKinley, who requested the jury to acquit. He was charged with petit larceny. It seems that J. H. Simpson and the defendant disagreed about some small business arrangements. Simpson had him arrested and he was held by the Justice of the Peace. When the testimony for the prosecution had been introduced yesterday, the facts disclosed that there was no case against Claverie. The action mentioned was then taken, without the introduction of any evidence for the defense. The amount over which the dispute between the two men arose was about $10.

THE CHAMBER.

No Effort to Change the Site of the Custom-house.

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday, Judge Fitzgerald presiding.

The report from the committee which was referred the matter of the Government building was laid on the table. The matter was fully canvassed by the board, together with Col. H. H. Markham, who was present at the invitation of the board. It was unanimously decided to recommend that no attempt be made to change the present location of the building.

The most important feature of the discussion was the probability of an increased appropriation next fall. The board was encouraged to believe from the expressions of the Senators lately here that it could be had. They then passed a resolution that work should stop, and an appropriation be signed for the purchase of additional ground and the erection of much larger buildings.

Dan McFarland was elected a director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of M. L. Wicks.

The Congressmen from California are to be invited to visit Los Angeles on June 15th, to be given an object lesson in the growth of the city and the county, and for the purpose of a closer and better acquaintance with our people.

THAT ELEPHANT.

Tenth-Street Hotel Stockholders in Session.

The projectors of the Tenth-street Hotel held an animated meeting in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. There were about 60 stockholders present and they seemed determined to go ahead with the monster building as soon as possible.

They need $200,000 as soon as possible to carry on the building, but the meeting was divided as to the best plan of operation in securing such a sum. Some of them were in favor of assessing the stockholders, while others thought it would be better to issue more stock and fix the value at such a small sum that people with small means might come in.

After a good deal of discussion the following committee was appointed to investigate the matter and report at the meeting next Monday afternoon:

M. L. Wicks, Dr. Hagan and Gen. Mathews.

The principal stockholders and property-owners in the vicinity of the proposed building are very anxious to have it completed before winter, and they will do all in their power to raise the necessary funds. The much-talked of Pullman scheme has fallen through and seems to have been started by irresponsible newspapers.

HARD GAME.

A. Witness Who Wouldn't Swear Without Boodle.

Detective McCarthy of the Los Angeles agency, who has been working up the arson case which grew out of the tar-and-feathers episode at San Pedro several weeks ago, came up from that city yesterday morning. He tells some hard stories on the prosecutors in the arson case. He says that one of the principal witnesses for the People told him, in the presence of witnesses, that he had been offered $50 to swear against McCarthy's client, but that he refused to do so, because the bribe would not put up the money in advance.

The story will bear investigation at the hands of the Grand Jury, and if it is found to be true the whole outfit should be prosecuted. The experience of said city, in droppings and the like, without unnecessary delay, the complaints of which are to be filed with the police, or with much offense as they are reasonably and probably guilty thereof, and file the same with the clerk of the said Police Court, and that you (or one of the deputy city attorneys) appear in said court and prosecute said cases to a full and final determination in said Police Court, the same defendants having demanded a speedy trial therein.

Respectfully, L. STANTON,
Judge of the Police Court of the said City of Los Angeles.

THE City and District Attorneys seem unable to agree as to the scope of the duties which devolve upon each.

LARGE orders have been received at Pomona from England for wine. Johnny Bull evidently don't harbor any ill will over that little Sackville incident.

CONNECTICUT evidently does not desire any more Democratic rule, if we may judge from the fact that within a year the number of Republican clubs in that State has grown from 23 to 121, and the membership from 3000 to 20,000.

We are glad to notice, from our Southern California exchanges, that a very large number of orange trees have been set out in nursery recently in this section, so that it will soon be no longer necessary to go to Florida for our trees.

THE women suffragists have been defeated again in Connecticut. Ninety-naught, naught men voted against the proposed woman-suffrage amendment to the Constitution, and only House voted for it.

SAN BERNARDINO people are growing because the Insane Asylum Commissioners are so long about locating a site for the building. The commissioners were last heard from in Northern California, where they have been visiting Gov. Waterman.

THE Chamber of Commerce has determined not to attempt to have the site of the Government building changed, but to endeavor to purchase adjoining ground, so as to enlarge the building with the increased appropriation which we hope to receive.

THE Senate committee appointed at the last session to investigate the question of the irrigation and reclamation of arid lands will commence their tour of observation about the 1st of August, when the arid season is usually at its highest degree of dryness.

THE discovery of a deposit of lime in this county, from which what is known as Portland cement can be made, is one of very great importance to this section. It is stated that this county alone used last year Portland cement to the value of three-quarters of a million dollars. The mineral wealth of Southern California is as yet comparatively unknown.

It is stated that many of the pictures displayed in the art department of the Paris Exposition are not creditable to the artists who painted them. Some of the canvases are as large as the drop-curtain of the theater, and some of the most revolting scenes of vice are depicted. The English press is very severe in its comments upon the gross immorality of these works.

THERE is wisdom in the suggestion of the Providence Journal that there is opportunity for profitable reflection in the fact "that New York gives $7600 in a single day for a monument which is thought in some way to commemorate the lavishness of its hospitality, and something like $50 in four months for a monument to the Nation's greatest soldier, whose remains were entrusted to it because of the solemn assurance that its generosity might be relied upon."

THE 'BONE indulges in some laborious and "measly" remarks about Mayor Hazard. The secret of the 'BONE's selfish animus lies in the well-known fact that the 'BONE tried to use the Mayor, but signally failed. The 'BONE's malice is impotent and its efforts to belittle the Mayor will prove fruitless. Long after the broken and decaying 'BONE has departed for that pale realm where all lifeless bones finally go, Flenny Hazard will be here, in the ascendant among his fellow men, with his enemies of the 'BONE breed, and other miscreants of the 'BONE tribe, either dead or under his feet. ## ELYSIAN PARK.

Kansas City is bound to have a park that shall be worthy of a great and growing metropolis. Recently a law has been passed which provides for the diversion of 30 per cent. of the dramshop funds to park purposes. It is a good object to apply such funds to. There is no one thing, as we have often said, more desirable, or which lends greater attractiveness and charm to a large city, than noble parks. Every city of any size should have them. They are the breathing places for its people, and the paradise for its children. Not less desirable are they for the health-imparting tendency which they give to the atmosphere, with the thousand lungs of their leaf-laden trees absorbing the impurities which fill the air of the populous city.

A beautiful park is also a marvelous educator, kindling a love for Nature and opening the eye to her charms. It is one of the best school-rooms that we can open for our children, filled, as it is, with object lessons that enlist their interest and attention, and provided, as it should be, with places for their amusement.

Los Angeles cannot too earnestly advocate the improvement of her parks, and larger appropriations for them. In this climate it does not take long to transform uncultivated lands into parks filled with shade and a rich variety of plants and flowers. Three years' work, with a liberal expenditure of money, would make Elysian Park one of the greatest attractions of Los Angeles, and one of the most popular resorts of our own citizens. The view from its elevation is unsurpassed. The perspective is broad and varied. Mountains fill the background; hills, and plains, and sea the wide and beautiful foreground. Plant it to waving palms, to towering eucalypti, to swaying palms, to branching cedars, to solemn pines, to shimmering olives, to smooth-leaved rubber trees, to green orange and to century-living oaks, with the hundreds of other trees which flourish is this climate; mark out the broad avenues that shall wind over hilltop and dip into vales; plant the thousands of blossoming shrubs and sow the multitudinous seeds that shall spring up and awake to blossoming life and beauty; let miniature lakes star the hollows between the hills, and beside them stand the rustic boathouses; let miniature waterfalls drop music in the heat of summer in the cool shade; build rocky grottos and rustic bridges, and spread out wide expanses of green lawns; rear green arbors and trace out sinuous defiles under the leaning trees that drop their shadows amid the flecks of sunshine; let smooth carriage ways wind in and out through the ever-varying landscape, and establish a museum of birds and the smaller animals, and see if people abroad do not soon take as much of the beauty of Elysian Park as they do of the orange groves, the vineyards and the climate of Los Angeles.

SAN PEDRO HARBOR.

Capt. P. C. Petersen of the Norwegian bark Orion, now anchored at San Pedro, is spending a week in town. The Orion, one of the largest vessels in the Norwegian merchant marine, is home from New South Wales, Australia, and will proceed to San Pedro to load lumber for Australia. Capt. Petersen is noted for his daring seamanship and the quick passages he has made. He has visited almost every seaport of consequence in the world, and is consequently something of a judge of harbors. When questioned as to his belief in the possibility of making a good harbor out of San Pedro, he said that he had no doubt whatever that it might be made an excellent one, although it would cost a good deal of money to do so. San Pedro harbor has at present, he says, a bad name among shipmasters, owing to the lack of conveniences for unloading, and the very high—not to say unreasonable—charges which are collected there from vessels. The cost of making San Pedro a first-class harbor would, in his opinion, be repaid within a very short time by the greatly increased traffic which would ensue.

It is probable that very few of our citizens fully appreciate the difference which it would make to this city if the port for the building. The commissioners were last heard from in Northern California, where they have been visiting Gov. Waterman.

THE Chamber of Commerce has determined not to attempt to have the site of the Government building changed, but to endeavor to purchase adjoining ground, so as to enlarge the building with the increased appropriation which we hope to receive.

THE THREE AMERICAS EXPOSITION.

Although it is so far in the future, considerable interest is already being displayed in the Three Americas International Exposition, to be held at Washington in 1892. This will be the first exclusively continental fair ever held, and will commemorate the discovery of the New World by Columbus. Not only the principal countries of Central and South America, but Spain and Italy, in the Old World, have promptly and liberally responded to the invitation. Spain has already informed the United States Minister at Madrid that she is ready to co-operate, and Italy has organized a board of promotion at Genoa, to prepare for the great anniversary of the event in which a citizen of that city was the hero. The Spanish-American Ministers at Washington have repeatedly

Many Millions Needed for Pensioners During the Coming Fiscal Year—Ordnance Bureau Doing Good Work.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Secretary Windom today signed the sailing orders of the revenue steamer Bush, directing that she sail immediately upon receipt of her instructions for the purpose of violating such waters for the purpose of violating section 1866 of the Revised Statutes, and arresting all persons and seizing all vessels found to be or have been engaged in violating the laws of the United States therein.

Section 1866 of the Revised Statutes, referred to above, provides that "no person shall kill any otter, mink, martens, sable or fur seal or other fur-bearing animal within the limits of Alaska Territory or in the waters thereof; and every person guilty thereof shall be fined of not less than $500 nor more than $1000 and suffer imprisonment of not more than six months, or both; and all vessels, their tackle, apparel, furniture and cargo, found engaged in violation of this section, shall be forfeited; but the Secretary of the Treasury may, by regulation, make such further punishment as he may see fit."

The commanding officer of the Bush is also furnished with a copy of the act of March 2, 1889, and the President's proclamation of March 21, 1889, regarding the protection of otter, mink and salmon fisheries of Alaska, and is instructed to enforce their provisions. The Bush is now at San Francisco ready for sea, and will sail immediately upon receipt of the orders, which were mailed at Washington this afternoon.

The revenue steamer, the Bush, will not find work in San Francisco for an extended time. Point Barrow, Alaska, has been designated to assist in the protection of the Alaskan fisheries, and will follow the Bush in a short time. Her orders are now being prepared at the Treasury Department.

BOUND FOR HAYTI.

Rumors About the Cruiser Boston's Mission to the Island.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—[By the Associated Press.] It is reported the United States steamer Boston will be sent to Hayti carrying a commission under authority of the State Department to ascertain and report upon the condition of affairs in Hayti, whether there is a disposition upon the part of any European governments to interfere in Hayti's affairs, and what it shall be duty of the Secretary to prevent the killing of any fur seal and to provide for the execution of the provisions of this section, otherwise provided by law, nor shall he grant any special privileges under this section."

The commanding officer of the Bush is also furnished with a copy of the act of March 2, 1889, and the President's proclamation of March 21, 1889, regarding the protection of otter, mink and salmon fisheries of Alaska, and is instructed to enforce their provisions. The Bush is now at San Francisco ready for sea, and will sail immediately upon receipt of the orders, which were mailed at Washington this afternoon.

The Boston is now at New York. She will be ordered to Hayti in a day or two.

Secretary of the Treasury, in pursuance of his orders, is in pursuit of his enemies, and is engaged in a race against the Irex and Garana.

King Humbert and Kaiser William Having a Fraternal Time at the German Capital—Par-nell's Hopeful Talk.

By Telegraph to The Times.

LONDON, May 23.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The cutter Valkyrie today competed in a race against the Irex and Garana.

The proposed course was from Gravesend around Mouse, lightship and back.

Owing to the absence of wind, however, they only went to the Nore and back.

The finish was a drifting match. The Valkyrie won easily.

Today's race proved an infinitely better race than Wednesday's race, which was virtually over the same course.

The Valkyrie made excellent time in a light wind.

The Garana was close at hand for some time, but in short tacking on the Kent shore the Valkyrie met the Garana on the starboard tack and took the lead.

At the finish the Valkyrie had a lead of one and a half lengths.

The Valkyrie was given a standing ovation.

The Valkyrie was exceptionally smart in weathering a steamer in the Nore, not a yard being wasted.

The day was supposed to be in favor of the Garana, but the wind was light and variable, and afforded no chance of showing her best qualities.

HUMBERT IN BERLIN.

The Italian King Lionized at the German Capital.

BERLIN, May 23.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] Emperor William today appointed the Crown Prince of Italy captain in the Thirteenth Hussars; also presented a portrait of himself to Crispel.

The Emperor and King Humbert made a visit to the tomb of the late Emperor Frederick, upon which King Humbert placed a wreath of flowers.

In the Reichstag today the President read a letter from Prince Bismarck inclosing a telegram from the Italian Chamber of Deputies to Premier Crispel, congratulating him upon the reception accorded to King Humbert in Berlin. The President also proposed that the House observe its pleasure arising from the triple alliance.

Baron Frankenstein, for the Center party, concurred in the proposal, with the reservation that his approval should not commit the Center party to the question of the triple alliance of the Pope.

This morning Emperor William and King Humbert reviewed the Potzdam garrison.

A grand luncheon followed, after which their majesties boarded the royal yacht and proceeded to Charlottenburg, whence they drove to Berlin.

The King has bestowed many decorations upon high officials here, and has also given a number of valuable presents.

CHATTANOOGA, May 23.—In the Southern General Assembly today the report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance recommended that the assembly should change its inauguration day to the first Wednesday in April, and to prohibit work on the Sabbath, and that the assembly request the officers and members of the church to refrain from all travel on Sunday, except in cases of necessity. The report was adopted.

The question of color line with the Northern church was then called. The special committee which had considered the report submitted a majority report, favoring the adoption of a recommendation to cooperate and an advisory report opposing it. The afternoon session was devoted to discussion.

Not all the members spoke, but the sentiment is overwhelmingly in support of cooperation. A report recommending organic union would, however, fail.

One of the strongest protests made was by General of the Cavalry, C. C. Johnson, in favor of the report to cooperate.

How the Union Pacific Will Enter California.

Both Cancels His Engagement in Los Angeles.

The Phoenix Absconder Arrested in Victoria, B. C.

The Episcopal Convention Discusses the Proposed Appointment of an Assistant to Bishop Kip—Coast Notes.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Railroad Commissioner A. A. Abbott is in the city and said today: "I don't think the Union Pacific will be built into Northern California very soon. Prominent officials of the road have told me it would cost them $25,000,000 to get into the northern part of the State and the long stretches of country that will have to be crossed lack resources. On the other hand it would only cost them $10,000,000 to get into Southern California. This could be done by extending the branch running from Ogden to Milford from the latter place to Barstow or Mojave on the Atlantic and Pacific. At the former place it would connect with the California Southern and with the Southern Pacific at the latter place. This route would give an immediate mining and coal traffic, and is one of the most favored at present." Yet it was told that the company intended completing all its surveys in Northern California.

"Up to date they have run four surveys over the Sierra Nevada Mountains, and from what I have heard I think the Union Pacific, when it gets ready to enter Northern California, will come due west from Ogden through Beckwith Pass."

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Bishop Kip Asks for an Assistant Strong Opposition.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—[By the Associated Press.] At today's session of the Episcopal Convention, Bishop Kip's report was read, asking that an Assistant Bishop be appointed. The matter was considered in Committee of the Whole.

The chancellor of the diocese, ex-Judge Stanley, presented a memorial, signed by laymen of several churches, protesting against the election of an assistant bishop, and calling upon the convention, if they did elect an assistant bishop, to take a cleavage outside the diocese.

A special protest against the election of an assistant bishop was received from St. Luke's parish of this city.

Rev. Dr. Spalding urged the election of an assistant to Bishop Kip, and introduced a resolution that the election begin.

Rev. Dr. B. C. Drown, an attorney, held that such election would be unconstitutional and illegal. Recess was taken until 2 o'clock.

At the afternoon session the election of directors, delegates and board officers took place, after which the convention again took up the question of an assistant bishop.

The chancellor of the diocese, J. J. Stanley, said he agreed with Dr. Beers that there was a prohibition on the convention from taking action on the matter. He declared that Bishop Kip himself had told him he was opposed to an election of an assistant bishop, but it had been induced later by certain interested clergymen to agree to select an assistant bishop, because he wanted peace and rest.

"Put him in command of his faculties today," said Judge Stanley, "and he is opposed to this proceeding as much as I am. There are men who have tortured him for years, and he has consented against his will."

After some further discussion, Rev. R. C. Foutz's amendment that the committee declare the convention incompetent to proceed with the election was adopted by the Committee of the Whole and reported to the convention, which adopted it by a vote of 100 to 90.

His Engagements Canceled—Modjeska Will Be a Substitute.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—[By the Associated Press.] Owing to the wish of Edwin Booth to take a long rest during this summer, Booth and Barrett have canceled the fourth week of their engagement in this city and also their engagements in the cities of Los Angeles, Portland, Butte and Helena, Mont. John Maguire, theatrical manager, effected arrangements today with Modjeska for her to fill Booth and Barrett's engagements outside of this city. The latter's company will support Modjeska. This extra engagement of six weeks will include Denver, Colo. Modjeska still expects to open the regular season with Booth in New York early in September.

About 14 or 15 of the deceased's fellow workmen did quit work by consent, being affected by the shock of the accident, and also because they wished to show respect for their comrade.

PASADENA NEWS.

IN AND OUT OF THE COURT OF JUSTICE.

A Pleasant Party—Preparations in Order—Here and There—Interesting Local Budget—Personal Mention.

PASADENA, May 23.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Wang Foy, a Chinese vegetable vendor, graced the interior of Justice Van Doren's courtroom this morning, where he was arraigned on a charge of malicious mischief. An interpreter accompanied his royal highness to satisfy the law and clear his fellow-countryman. Foy was arrested on complaint of a 10-year-old girl named May Belle Reese, who accused the heathen in her written statement of trying to force an entrance into the house of Charles Copelin, a relative with whom she is staying. The Chinaman protested his innocence, as also did the interpreter, but the Judge could not see it in that way and exacted a fine of $5. The money was paid with reluctance and with tears in his eyes. John departed, swearing vengeance to Pasadena just.

The next case to occupy the attention of His Honor was indeed a sad one. "Old Whittim," as he is called, was brought before the bar of justice looking lean and haggard, and trembling in every limb from an excessive use of the ardent. His nose looked considerably battered, which showed that his spire was using him up pretty badly. With compassion the Justiced gave him 30 days in the county boarding-house. Whittim bears the disgrace of having occupied the city cooler on more than twenty occasions.

PREPARATIONS IN ORDER.

Preparations for the observance of another national holiday, as announced in THE TIMES of this morning, are now in progress. On the coming Sunday the Grand Army post and Kearney Camp, S. V., have arranged to have memorial services held in the Universalist Church at 11 o'clock. It will be a service to which all are invited to be present. The pastor, Rev. E. L. Conger, will deliver a sermon on this anniversary of the Nation's dead. The other churches will also hold services of a similar nature.

On Decoration day, however, the occasion will be observed by special services in the Tabernacle, which has been selected on account of its spacious seating capacity. Addresses will be made by Enoch Knight, W. E. Arthur, P. F. Bresler and others. Patriotic song sand good orchestral music will enliven the celebration.

A PLEASANT PARTY.

The Misses Bradley gave a U.K.R. party at their home on Madison avenue last evening. Six tables were in use and every one present reports a good time. There were present: Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Swartwout, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Littlefield, Mrs. Winslow, Miss Bates, Mr. Martin, Mr. Vandevort, Mr. and Miss Wotkins, Dr. Sherk and wife, Mr. Goodhue, Mr. and Mrs. Rust, Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Mr. Shurtliff, Miss King, Miss Hurlbut, Mrs. Sterling.

LOCAL BUDGET.

Work on the sewer is being pushed rapidly forward, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

Health Officer McAllister and City Attorney Polley made a tour of the "slums" of the city this afternoon. Everything is reported in a sanitary condition.

The Southern California Tea Company has opened a store in the Carlton block.

IS WE GONE?

A man by the name of Burton was taken up by Marshal McLean yesterday as a vagrant, and given orders to hasten his departure to greener fields. Burton was seen on the streets again this morning, and evidently the climate has placed a fascination upon him. The fellow is tall and powerfully built, and with half an effort it seems he can earn an honest livelihood. The St. Nicholas Hotel and many other boarding places, including the Wooden Nutmeg lodging-house, hold his promises to pay, but up to today they have never been fulfilled.

HERE AND THERE.

A real "live" bottle of whisky of the Bourbon brand was the sole occupant of the court-room between the hours of 2 and 3 this afternoon. The ardent belonged evidently to a one-time occupant of the bustle.

F. J. Polley and Ernest Canfield began the work of searching the county records tomorrow.

The postmaster has had placed in each subscriber's box a slip of paper, to which the signature is asked for a preference as to whether the office should be closed or opened on Sundays.

Robert S. Hunt, D.D., corresponding secretary of the American Bible Society, will deliver a lecture at the Tabernacle on next Tuesday evening. The subject is, "The Bible in All Lands." A collection will be taken up for the benefit of the Bible work in Southern California.

M. E. SOCIAL.

The Young People's Society of the Methodist Church held another of their fortnightly socials in the church parlors this evening. The clear evening brought out a large crowd of young and old, who enjoyed themselves during the first hour in pleasant conversation. The following literary and musical programme was well given: An instrumental solo by the Misses Wood and Cochran; recitation by Miss Annie White; vocal solo, "A Waiting Heart," by Miss Peck; reading by F. A. Healy; an instrumental solo by Mrs. F. S. Wallace; recitation by Miss Bosley, and a vocal solo by Mr. Lebo.

REQUIESCAT IN PACE.

The TIMES correspondent was accused a few days ago of fostering the death of the cannery project. At that time I had been posted that no application for a charter had been made, hence my obituary with now the epitaph, "requiescat in pace." The following will be of interest in the above connection:

Daily Union: "The cannery is a thing of the past. The whole business has failed through, and when might have been a great success has become a complete fizzle. Who is blame would be difficult to say. When the opposition was first submitted by Judge Justice it seemed to smother the elements of success, but the original plan was twisted and disarranged until one could not recognize it at all. 'Twas ever thus."

Daily Star: "A reader writes to inquire as to the status of the Pasadena Fruit Company—whether it is alive or defunct. We are constrained to say that the organization is in a state of suspended animation, and that if a shock of some kind be not given it very soon, the chances of its resuscitation will be hopeless."

BADLY USED UP.

Three laborers employed on the sewers now being dug below the Raymond Hotel were badly used up, but not seriously injured, this afternoon. One man while working in the trench was hit on the head by a falling stone and received a severe gash, from which the blood flowed freely. Another employee was carrying water across a plank over the sewer, when he slipped and fell, the bucket in its descent hitting a laborer on the head who was engaged in digging. The man who fell received several bruises.

Mrs. Sara E. Stevens of No. 116 North Chestnut street, who has been on a visit to Portland, Me., returned on this week.

Dr. A. Schloss met with a narrow escape again yesterday, from the running away of a horse that he was driving. The carriage was smashed up generally and the Doctor dumped out, but not seriously hurt.

Deputy Assessor Frank Marsh is in just the humor that the public like to see nowadays. He's the father of a daughter, and it weighs nine pounds.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Yesterday morning about 11 o'clock a carpenter named Ernest Gundler, working on the new building at the corner of Sainsevain and Alameda streets, met with a serious accident. In crossing the building he fell between the joists, injuring himself terribly and severing the public artery. The patrol wagon was sent for, and Gundler was removed to his room at No. 33 South Fort street, where Drs. Wing and Morrison attended him. Both physicians worked hard, remanding the injured man most of the afternoon. Gundler will be confined to his room for some time, but unless septic poison sets in, the doctors have no fears of his ultimate recovery.

REQUIESCAT IN PACE.

The TIMES correspondent was accused a few days ago of fostering the death of the cannery project. At that time I had been posted that no application for a charter had been made, hence my obituary with now the epitaph, "requiescat in pace." The following will be of interest in the above connection:

Daily Union: "The cannery is a thing of the past. The whole business has failed through, and when might have been a great success has become a complete fizzle. Who is blame would be difficult to say. When the opposition was first submitted by Judge Justice it seemed to smother the elements of success, but the original plan was twisted and disarranged until one could not recognize it at all. 'Twas ever thus."

Daily Star: "A reader writes to inquire as to the status of the Pasadena Fruit Company—whether it is alive or defunct. We are constrained to say that the organization is in a state of suspended animation, and that if a shock of some kind be not given it very soon, the chances of its resuscitation will be hopeless."

BADLY USED UP.

Three laborers employed on the sewers now being dug below the Raymond Hotel were badly used up, but not seriously injured, this afternoon. One man while working in the trench was hit on the head by a falling stone and received a severe gash, from which the blood flowed freely. Another employee was carrying water across a plank over the sewer, when he slipped and fell, the bucket in its descent hitting a laborer on the head who was engaged in digging. The man who fell received several bruises.

New York, May 23.—Transactions in the stock market today were unusually heavy, and the strength of the market was in keeping with the amount of trading. The general bullish feeling was so strong and the advances made by leading shares so material that all opposition to the upward movement was overcome, and the entire list moved up in unison after 12 o'clock. St. Paul was by long odds the great feature of the day, and it furnished nearly one-third of the entire transactions in listed stocks. The active list is almost invariably higher, and St. Paul is up 2½. Lackawanna 1½. St. Paul preferred 1½. Rock Island 1½. Atchison 1½, and Lake Shore 1.
